Divestient	— A certified opp to your wallet. Finance bro who "borrows" forever.
Vectigal	— Free money from the system. Tax returns, airdrops, grant money.

Appendix I
Rules of Engagement for the Modern Polymath

1. Remain Sesquipedalian only when emolument is guaranteed.
2. Bloviate at your own risk — ultracrepidarians are watching.
3. Absquatulate before they ask for your credentials.
4. Quomodocunquization is the way. Plutolatry is the weekend.

Appendix II
For the Lucratives

To those who make it look easy

The Lucrative path is not walked by the mumpish or the quaestuary. It is claimed by the fructiferous of spirit.

- Seek argentiferous work, but let not mammonism strip your quidditative purpose.
- When emolument arrives, remember: even vectigal must be managed, lest it become pelf.
- Be numismatic in strategy, circumforaneous in execution, and never a quockerwodger to trends.
- Your legacy should be lucrative, not merely lucripetous.

Appendix III
For the Quidditatives

To those who seek the essence

To be Quidditative is to ignore the grandiloquent noise and find the signal.

- Do not bloviate. Speak only when your words are fructiferous.
- Let cacozelia die. The true polymath needs no affectation.
- When the ultracrepidarians speak, remain abderian.

You know the quidditative truth:

- Pecunialatry is empty without purpose.
- Plutolatry is hollow without wisdom.
- Auri Sacra Fames ends only when you define "enough."

The quidditative value of this compendium?
Remember who you are when the bag is secured.

For everyone in the list not to be lost: Let your words be sesquipedalian only when your heart is quidditative. Let your pursuits be lucrative but never let mammonism make you mumpish. Obambulate through knowledge as a philomath, absquatulate from pelf, and remain abderian in the face of ultracrepidarian nonsense. The world is argentiferous for the polymath who knows the difference between quaestuary gains and fructiferous growth.
